BIO

Adenland is a rock band based in Norwich and Kings Lynn and formed in the late 2000s. After experiencing several lineup changes in the bands early years, in 2013 it settled with its classic lineup consisting of lead singer and guitarist Aden Gerrens, drummer and singer Daniel Coyle, and bassist Barry Gerrens. The band has a powerful and energetic live set which includes famous hits from the band members' influences which include Thin Lizzy, Guns N' Roses, Status Quo, Jimi Hendrix, and much more. Original Material is unique and recognizable as the band.

The band has played at various music venues around its hometowns of Norwich and Kings Lynn. In August 2015, the band played a set at The Great British R&B Festival in Colne, Lancashire after winning auditions to Jessica Foxley Unsigned, they also returned there in 2016, playing another successful gig.

BAND MEMBERS

Front man Aden Gerrens began playing guitar at the age of 5, along with many years of practice and being taught by his Dad, and guitar teacher Nigel Digby, Adenland was formed.

In 2012, Aden took over the role of lead singer/guitarist. As the band progressed as a covers band through its early years, original songs were added, and are now familiar with fans. Aden's favourite artists include Red Hot Chili Peppers, Arctic Monkeys, Foo Fighters, Oasis, Guns N' Roses, Jimi Hendrix, and many more. Aden is also the youngest person in the world to pass Rockschool grade 8 guitar.

Drummer & Singer Daniel Coyle joined Adenland in 2012. Dan started playing drums at the age of 11, and his many influences include Queen and Status Quo. Dan has played in several bands and with many top musicians. Dan's energetic drumming style provides the heartbeat of the band. "Power-house of a drummer."
– Keith Blackledge.

Barry Gerrens became Adenland's bassist in 2013. Barry started playing guitar at the age of 10 and has played both bass and guitar in numerous bands since. Barry's many influences include Jimi Hendrix and Thin Lizzy.
